Are you in town? If possible it would be great opportunity for the kids if we could get a 15min office call with you. The National Parks are part of their curriculum. Plus it would be great to see you besides on TV.

Z,

All that sounds outstanding!!! WH tour, top of the Lincoln, monuments... Whatever time you have to spare we greatly appreciate! We have booked stuff for the weekend already. The 11th through the 15th are wide open if that still works. If not let me know.

Hooyah!!!
Todd.

See you soon,

Hi Todd,

How many people are in your group? For White House tours, we do need to submit security information to the White House before the request can be considered. I have attached the security WAVES form. Please fill it out and return it as soon as possible. SSNs are not required for those under the age of 16 I believe; I will confirm that for you though!

Once we know your group size, I can reach out to Elaine to determine availability for the DOI van tours of the national monuments.

Best,
Caroline

Thank you Caroline. Also for your SA and I apologize if it creates an issue. I reached out to our Senator about a capital tour. Sen Corker's tour director, Leslie Crisp, scheduled two tours for the 12th, a Capitol tour at 11:00 and Library of Congress tour at 1:45. If those conflict please let me know and I'll reschedule. I'd rather the kids get the chance to meet Ryan and see the WH.

Hi Todd,

Right now he is traveling for the majority of next week with the 14-15th pretty packed; I'll be in touch about a potential time to stop in if one is available!

There is only public parking around the White House; it does get emptier at night when most people leave work for the day. They do recommend public transportation; the closest metro stop (McPherson Square on the orange/blue/silver lines) is only a few blocks from the entrance.

Best,
Caroline

I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you again for arranging for JD Williamson and his wife to have the White House tour.

They arrived yesterday and they are scheduled for the tour tomorrow. They will be in town for the next two weeks.

If I can repay the favor in some way don't hesitate to give me a call!

Thanks for responding. My wife and I used to go to D.C. a lot, but it has been ages since we did. So, we are really looking forward to it. There are just the two of us and so we can be flexible on dates. (There are two others who might like to join us if the dates align – a good friend and her 11-year old daughter.)

The only time that is really out is May 5-21 (b) (6) plus a couple of days on either side of that. We'd prefer to visit when the Secretary is in town. We don't expect babysitting, though – just a "hello" would do, unless he'd like to have lunch or dinner again.

How about getting back to me when his schedule is nailed down?

We chatted at an event for Senator Daines and then had dinner together afterward. At the end of the evening Secretary Zinke invited my wife Sally and me to come visit him in Washington D.C. He regaled us with the excitement of seeing what is underneath the Lincoln Memorial, for example. He said he would arrange a VIP tour and again encouraged us to come to D.C.

Well, Sally and I would like to take him up on the offer. The best time for us would be the latter half of April. Could you help us set a date when the Secretary will be in town?

Craig Jensen

Hi Craig,

You have officially been reserved for a VIP van tour on April 24. The reservation is for a group of (4) under Jensen. You will need to be in the C Street lobby no later than 8:45am. A Ranger will come into the lobby and have a list of guests for the day.

You will visit WWII; Vietnam and Korean War Memorials; Lincoln Memorial; FDR; MLK and Jefferson Memorial.

The Ranger will stop midday at a location TBD, so you can take a break or get lunch. You will continue the tour until approximately 3:30pm, ending at DOI C Street.

Dear Caroline,

We have our plans settled now. We'll arrive in D.C. on Sunday the 23rd and would like to do the tour on Monday the 24th of April. There will just be two of us: Craig & Sally Jensen. We will stay an extra day to visit a couple of legislators and plan to fly out late on the 25th.

Hi Craig,

I apologize for the delay. We are still understaffed here, and I've been unfortunately preoccupied with scheduling the Secretary's events for the President's first 100 days and for a week and a half of travel that he departed on today.

We apologize that you were unable to view underneath the memorial. It has been something that we are in discussions with the Park Service in regards to; I believe they recently expressed concerns about safety, which was why they have not been permitting people underneath (they are slated to begin rehabilitation of the Memorial this fall). They've even turned the Secretary's wife away once when she went without him to the memorial recently so we are working to try to come to a suitable conclusion with them.

I have passed your concerns along to the NPS employee who schedules the tours (I don't organize them myself), and again, we apologize for the inconvenience.

Best,
Caroline

We just left the Lincoln Memorial with great disappointment, as Ranger Morse was not allowed to show us what is beneath it, which is what Secretary Zinke specifically ask us to come here to see. What's the story?

Hi Keshia,

We don't have an estimated line-by-line other than 5:30-6:15 time in the office, 6:15-7:00 tour. The departure time is not super strict either; they're welcome to stay a little longer in the office if they desire.

They drive to the Lincoln Memorial. I'm happy to loop your security detail in with ours if they haven't already connected. Ours are pretty used to the Lincoln tours by now!

In regards to arrival information, that has always been coordinated between the security details. They'll be waived through by building security and someone will be stationed downstairs to meet them at the C street entrance.

Secretary Zinke's wife's travel plans have been all over the place. She's actually not planning on being in DC for the month of September except for the Cabinet Meeting (...which doesn't really count as DC). Sec. Zinke does want to meet up with Sec. Acosta and his wife! He's offered for them to come over to DOI one night when they're free for drinks and then he can take them to the top of the Lincoln Memorial. We're traveling a lot, but he's available:

9/14

9/18

9/19

9/25

Let me know if one of those dates works!

I received a call from Paul Woodson of Capital Concerts on Sunday informing me the SOI was on his list to attend last nights concert rehearsal and he was confirming his attendance. As we were not notified of any such event I checked the calender again and there was nothing.

Thanks

Christian Delich (b) (6) will be serving as Mr. Duncan Wesley's (805-689-3881) guide tomorrow at the park. They should plan on meeting Christian at the Joshua Tree Visitor Center in the Village of Joshua Tree (HWY I-10 West from LA to HWY 62. In Joshua Tree, right on Park Blvd. Visitor Center is immediately on your right). Stree address is 6554 Park Blvd, Joshua Tree, CA 92252. Christian will have a van so that they can tour around together. I will be working out at the Lost Horse Campground - Christian can run them both down to the training site and I will give them a quick welcome before Christian continues his tour. They will return to the JTVC for them to pick up their car. If they are planning on staying the night, we would be happy to put them up in the casita and have them over for dinner. They can coordinate with Christian or me tomorrow. My office phone is 760-367-5501, cell 760-401-7999, home (b) (6).

So happy that we can help out.

Caroline,

My friend with The Beach Boys and I were discussing that Mike Love, his wife Jacqueline and John Stamos might want to see the Lincoln underground. Their schedule will probably only allow them to do something in the morning of July 3. They will have sound check early afternoon and the dress rehearsal, so their only option might be in the morning.

Can you see if the Secretary's schedule will allow for us to take them in the morning? Thanks
